

ACQUISITIONS AND CAPITAL RAISING

Announcement

28 November 2007

---

The Board of Capitol Health Limited (Company) placed the Company's shares on voluntary suspension from trading as of Monday 26th November 2007. The purpose of this voluntary suspension was to complete documentation and funding arrangements for the acquisition of two radiology groups.

The Company is pleased to advise that the necessary documentation of the acquisitions and funding arrangements are expected to be completed very shortly and full details of these transactions will then be announced. The Company will request the ASX to release the voluntary suspension at that time.
